

Food Production & Cooking QCF/NVQ

Food Production & Cooking

This is a great opportunity for candidates interested in working in hospitality or catering outlets. It is for those that already work in this environment and for beginners.

Suitable job roles include:

- Kitchen Assistant
- Bar Person/Supervisor
- Contract Caterers
- Chef
- Waiter

QCF/NVQ Level 2

QCFs/NVQs are organised into levels, based on the competences required

Career Opportunities on release

This qualification will support your job application to work within a variety of roles within the catering and hospitality industry and is desirable when applying for the roles noted above.

Qualification Requirements

3 Mandatory Units, 8 Optional Units

To achieve the qualification, learners must complete mandatory units which cover:

- maintaining food safety when storing, preparing and cooking food
- working effectively as part of a hospitality team
- maintaining a safe, hygienic and secure working environment

Learners must also achieve 8 optional routes, which includes:

- producing basic food dishes
- maintaining efficient use of food sources
- maintaining an efficient use of resources in the kitchen
- preparing meals for distribution

There are a variety of optional units to suit your role.