

Warehousing & Storage QCF/NVQ

Warehousing & Storage

These QCFs/NVQs are suitable for those:

- currently working in a warehouse and storage role
- wishing to gain recognition of their competence
- who want qualifications to help improve career development opportunities
- benefit from on the job experience

QCFs/NVQs are organised into levels and based on the competences required.

QCF/NVQ Level 2

Building upon skills developed through the candidate's job, which are suitable for people, who have particular warehouse and storage skill

Career Opportunities on release

This qualification will support your job application for roles specific to the distribution and manufacturing sectors ranging from Warehouse Assistant, Distribution Operative to Warehouse or Operations Supervisor/Manager.

Qualification Requirements

2 Mandatory Units, 5 Optional Units

To achieve the qualification, learners must complete mandatory units which cover:

- health, safety and security at work
- developing effective working relationships with colleagues in logistics operations

Learners must also achieve 5 optional routes, which include:

- picking goods in logistics operations
- maintaining the cleanliness of equipment in logistics operations
- moving and/or handling goods in logistics operations
- keeping stock at required levels in logistics operations

There are a variety of optional units to suit your role.